Sir,

Submitted for orders

I beg leave to bring the following few facts for your kind consideration and orders

Memo submitted for orders
18/4/07
Rs

In the Narasimhaswamy temple at Muggakelli Chennaraya-Patna Taluk, there is a Pundit who recites Puranam every day in the temple. To listen to him many devotees from all parts assemble in the temple. As a part of remuneration for this laudible work he is doing, he gets some piece

the Chennaraya
Patna

katura Chattram. What he gets is quite insufficient for him to meet his daily wants in these days of high prices. One of the former Deputy Commissioners, clearly saw what wholesome moral effect his teaching had upon his hearers in these days when everything religious or moral, is ridiculed and fearing lest the loss of his invaluable services in that direction, should lead to the moral degeneration of the people in those parts, recommended him to Government for some increase in his remunerations to keep him above want and thus make him wholly devote his attention to his teaching. Besides it is extremely desirable that all such healthy influences should be kept alive with temple which is not only very famous, but is also very ancient dating back to the 11th Century A.D. I, as a member of the managing committee of the temple, will feel extremely grateful to Government if the pundit is encouraged on her recommendation of the former Deputy Commissioner of Kadoor.

For which act of kindness

I beg to remain

The Dewan of Mysore

[Through the Huzoor Secretary to the Govt of Mysore]

Sir,

We beg leave to bring the following lines to your Consideration —

Sreeman Pandit Ramaswamy Iyengar who is reciting puranam in the Narasimha swamy temple at Nuggehalli in the Chennarayapatna taluk was at first granted a measure of rice everyday. On representation the concession shown to him was increased. The time for which the concession was shown is closing by the end of June. His services are greatly needed at that place. Scarcely we can have the services of one like Sreeman Pandit Rama-Iyengar. His teachings are effective and religiously. So we all pray concession shown to him may be ever. For which act et of kindness we ever pray the ernment for its increasing prosperity.

We beg to remain
Sir
Yours obediently
